THE GRIDDLE

After conquering LA's legendary nightlife, natives in the know head straight for The Griddle Café to get their fix of fluffy pancakes and scrumptious french toast. Portions are perfect for sharing, so grab your girlfriends and catch up over a "Scotch on Rocks"—a stack of coconut, pecan, oat, and butterscotch-chip flapjacks. Come early to avoid the lines, but even if you oversleep, this homestyle joint is worth the wait. 7916 Sunset Boulevard, thegriddlecafe.com

RUNYON CANYON

The City of Angeles is rife with heavenly bodies—and they didn't get that way by accident. Ditch the treadmill and hit the trails of Runyon Canon for the leanest legs in La La Land. The sweeping city views are almost as breathtaking as the sightings of studly celebs. And good news for Bendel girls with a pooch in tow—the off-leash policy means plenty of room for Rover to roam. 2000 North Fuller Drive
