3. MICHY'S

Tempt your taste buds with husband and wife team David Martinez and Michelle Bernstein's "luxurious comfort food" restaurant, Michy's. Menu options include seasonal ingredients sourced from local farmers and fishermen. And don't even get us started on the beyond delish desserts (the famous baked Alaska is our fave!) If the palate pleasers weren't enough to draw you in, the vibrant vintagey interior will have you fantasizing about making your pad more posh. 6927 Biscayne Boulevard

4. BIG PINK

Beach bums and chic chicks alike flock to this kitschy-beyond-belief diner that serves "real food for real people." Pink Lucite, stainless steel and sports lockers surround the space. Try the Big Pink TV Dinner, which comes in an actual dinner tray and serves the day's special savories. All this spot's missing is the fact that it's not open 24 hours. Run, don't walk. 157 Collins Avenue

6. SOHO BEACH HOUSE

Meet your new haute spot hang out. This uber-luxurious members only club is the sister to Soho House in London, LA and NYC. Among the awe-inspiring amenities are 50 suites, a private beach, two pools, gardens, a screening room... are you excited yet? Beauty treatments at Cowshed spa, meals at Venetian-inspired Cecconi's—sign us up! 4385 Collins Avenue

5. THE DOG BAR

Your pooch will pant over all the goodies you'll bring home from this pet store to end all pet stores. The health and well-being of your fuzzy friend is their number one priority. All-natural pet food, world-class grooming, posh pet apparel (think his & hers tanks and Miami Heat jerseys!), even holistic supplements... A Bendel Girl's best friend never had it so good. 1684 Jefferson Avenue

7. BONGOS CUBAN CAFE

When in Miami, feign a flare for the Florida festivities and head to Bongos, the brainchild of singer Gloria Estefan. Traditional Cuban fare is on the docket, but don't worry about indulging in their mouth-watering menu (did someone say Mojitos?) – you'll burn those calories right off dancing the night away. The rhythm is most certainly gonna get you. American Airlines Arena, 601 Biscayne Boulevard
